

Tuition Payments

Tuition Express will be our preferred method of processing payments. The following options are available to you:

- Automated Recurring Credit Card Transactions (The Mustard Seed will initiate the charge automatically each week for the amount of your child's weekly tuition)
- Automated Recurring ACH Transactions (The Mustard Seed will initiate the charge automatically each week for the amount of your child's weekly tuition)
- Online Credit Card Transactions (Parents log onto Tuition Express and submit the weekly tuition payment)
- Online ACH Transactions (Parents log onto Tuition Express and submit the weekly tuition payment)
- Point of Sale Transactions (Parents pay in the office by credit card – this option will be limited to special events and other similar items, not for weekly tuition payments)

Weekly tuition payments by check and cash will no longer be accepted.

Please rest assured that Tuition Express is a PCI Level 1 Service Provider. Your personal account information could not be safer. Automatic payments are proven safer than paying by check.
